

CBA Wessex - 60th Anniversary Conference

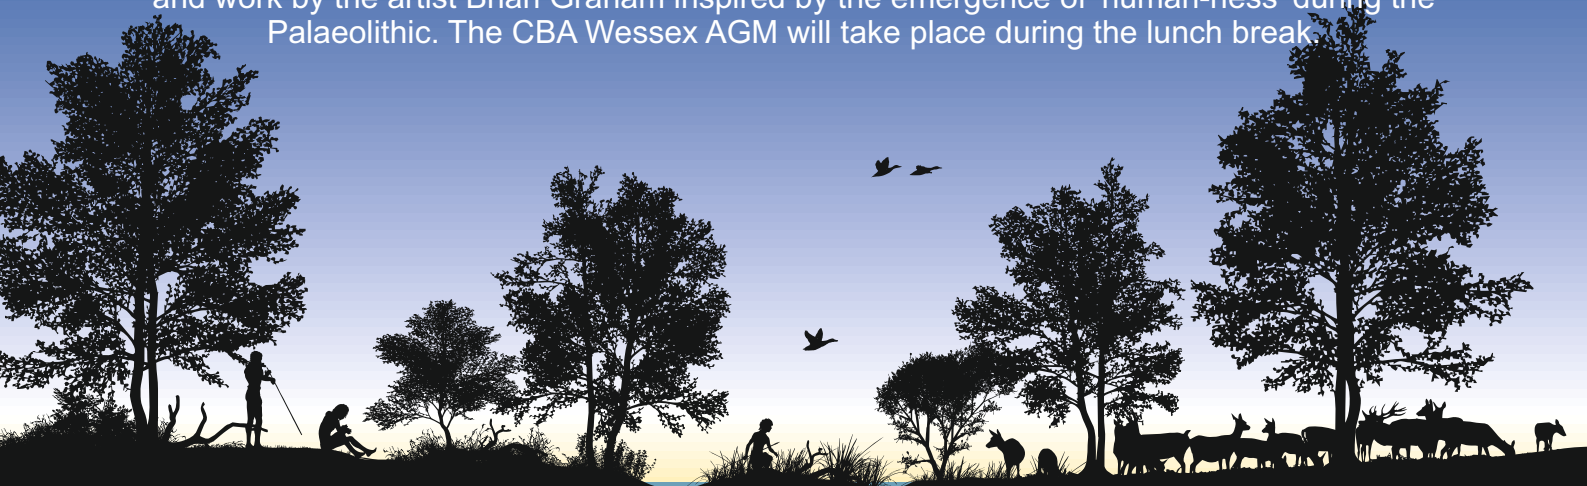

In collaboration with The University of Southampton, Prehistoric Society and Wessex Archaeology

Dawn

from our earliest ancestors to the hunter-gatherers of the Mesolithic

Our keynote speaker for the 60th Anniversary Conference is Professor Alice Roberts with 'Tamed: Three species that changed our world' and a plethora of eminent Palaeolithic specialists, including Professor Chris Stringer, Professor Nick Ashton, Professor Steve Mithen, Professor Vince Gaffney, Professor Alistair Pike, Dr Silvia Bello and Dr Matt Pope. The talks will cover new research and discoveries from the Channel islands, Doggerland, Suffolk and Scotland and the application of science in the understanding of our early ancestors, with sessions chaired by Dr Phil Harding, Dr Helen Farr and Professor Margaret Cox.

Julian Richards with the Young Archaeologists Club will be entertaining us with a cameo. During refreshment breaks, people can view a number of exhibitions, displays, book-stalls, student posters and work by the artist Brian Graham inspired by the emergence of 'human-ness' during the Palaeolithic. The CBA Wessex AGM will take place during the lunch break.
